Huff: Watch the Signs, Know the Day, Prepare

"Christ says no man knoweth the day or the hour when the Son of Man cometh (Matt 24:36)...Did Christ speak this as a general principle throughout all generations? Oh no, he spoke in the present tense. No man that was then living...knew the day or the hour. But he did not say that there was no man throughout all generations that should not know the day or the hour. No for this would be in flat contradiction with other scripture for the prophets (Amos 3:7) says that God will do nothing but what he will reveal unto his servants the prophets."

Joseph Smith, April 6 1843

"38 Now learn a parable of the fig tree—When its branches are yet tender, and it begins to put forth leaves, you know that summer is nigh at hand;

39 So likewise, mine elect, when they shall see all these things, they shall know that he is near, even at the doors;"

-JS Matthew 1:38-39

37 Ye look and behold the fig trees, and ye see them with your eyes, and ye say when they begin to shoot forth, and their leaves are yet tender, that summer is now nigh at hand;

38 Even so it shall be in that day when they shall see all these things, then shall they know that the hour is nigh.

39 And it shall come to pass that he that feareth me shall be looking forth for the great day of the Lord to come, even for the signs of the coming of the Son of Man.

40 And they shall see SIGNS AND WONDERS, for they shall be shown forth in the heavens above, and in the earth beneath.

-JST Luke 21:36

Commanded to Watch

“...WATCH ye therefore, and pray always and keep my commandments, that ye may be counted worthy to escape all these things which shall come to pass, and stand before the Son of man when He shall come clothed in the glory of His Father.”
- JST Luke 21:36

“...WATCH and pray...” -Mark 13:33

“...they did WATCH steadfastly for that day...” -3 Nephi 1:8

“WATCH, therefore, that ye may be ready...” -D&C 50:46

“Awake and arise...WATCH therefore...” -D&C 133:10-11

“We need to make both temporal and spiritual preparation for the events prophesied at the time of the Second Coming. And the preparation most likely to be neglected is the one less visible and more difficult - the spiritual. A 72 hour kit of temporal supplies may prove valuable for earthly challenges, but, as foolish virgins learned to their sorrow, a 24-hour kit of spiritual preparation is of greater and more enduring value”
Pres. Dallin H. Oaks, Conference, 2004

“In coming days, it will not be possible to survive spiritually without the guiding, directing, comforting, and constant influence of the Holy Ghost.”

Pres. Russell M. Nelson, Conference, 2019

“Spiritual impressions I have received leave me to believe that the term ‘Millennial’ may actually be perfect for you, but, for a much different reason than the expert may ever understand. The term ‘Millennial’ is perfect for you if that term reminds you of who you really are and what your purpose in life really is...A true ‘Millennial’ is a man or woman who God trusted enough to send to earth in the most compelling dispensation in the history of this world. A true ‘Millennial’ is a man or woman who lives now to help prepare the people of this world for the Second Coming of Jesus Christ and his millennial reign.”

“Our divine mandate is to go to every nation, kindred, tongue, and people, helping to prepare the world for the Second Coming of the Lord. This we will do with faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, knowing that he is in charge. This is His work and His church. We are His servants.”

“Do the spiritual work to find out for yourselves and PLEASE DO IT NOW. Time is running out.”

“Our Savior and Redeemer, Jesus Christ, will perform some of His mightiest works between now and when He comes again. We will see miraculous indication that God the Father and His Son, Jesus Christ, preside over this Church in majesty and glory. In coming days, it will not be possible to survive spiritually without the guiding, directing, comforting, and constant influence of the Holy Ghost.”

“I am not saying that the days ahead will be easy, but I promise you that the future will be glorious for those who are prepared and who continue to prepare to be instruments in the Lord’s hands...Let us not just endure this current season. Let us embrace the future with faith! Turbulent times are opportunities for us to thrive spiritually. They are times when our influence can be much more penetrating than in calmer times.”

“In a coming day, only those men who have taken their priesthood seriously, diligently seeking to be taught by the Lord Himself, will be able to bless, guide, protect, strengthen, and heal others. Only a man who has paid the price for priesthood power will be able to bring miracles to those he loves and keep his marriage and family safe, now and throughout eternity.”

Pres. Russell M. Nelson, Conference, 2016

“We live in the day that our forefathers have awaited with anxious expectation. We have front row seats to witness live what the prophet Nephi saw only in vision; that the power of the Lamb of God would descend upon the covenant people of the Lord who were scattered upon all the face of the earth. And they were armed with righteousness and with the power of God in great glory. You my brothers and sisters are among those men, women and children who Nephi saw. Think of that!”

Pres. Russell M. Nelson

“There will be no general warning to the membership that things will be shortly falling apart. We have been commanded to follow the signs of the times and that is all the warning we need or will be given, but the membership is asleep. Like the Ten Virgins, we have been commanded to watch and prepare, but like the people in the days of Noah, many members have become lulled into a sense of security. This ‘lack of warning’ is designed to weed out the tares the ‘All is well in Zion,’ crowd...when the cry sounds, there is no time for preparation.”

Spencer W. Kimball

“In the light of these prophecies there should be no doubt in the mind of any priesthood holder that the human family is headed for trouble. There are rugged days ahead. It is time for every man who wishes to do his duty to get himself prepared - physically, spiritually, and psychologically for the task which may come at any time, as suddenly as the whirlwind.”

Ezra Taft Benson, General Conference Oct. 1961

Celestial Signs & Warnings

“...the era in which we live is the fulness of times spoken of in the scriptures, when God has brought together all of the elements of previous dispensations. From the day that He and His Beloved Son manifested themselves to the boy Joseph, there has been a tremendous cascade of enlightenment poured out upon the world. The hearts of men have turned to their fathers in fulfillment of the words of Malachi. The vision of Joel has been fulfilled wherein he declared:”

Gordon B. Hinckley, Living in the Fulness of Times, Oct. 2001

Joel 2:28-32

“...I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

Prophetic Appointments - “Appointed Days”

The Last Week of Jesus' life (Holy Week)

1. “Triumphal Entry” - “Palm Sunday” - “Inspection of the Lamb”
Christ enters into Jerusalem on the exact colt that was reserved for the High Priest to carry in the sacrificial lamb from the fields, which is traditionally displayed to the public for the passover sacrifice. Christ fulfilled this role as lamb and High Priest to present the offering.
2. Pesach known as “Passover” - at “Seder” the passover dinner celebration, Jesus washed the Apostles feet, instituted the sacrament, and prepared them for his imminent atonement.
3. Jesus went to the Garden of Gethsemane that evening (Passover) to spill his blood as a sacrifice for the sins of the world. Taking the place of the sacrificial lamb being prepared by the Temple High Priest for the Passover sacrifice.
4. Jesus was crucified on “Passover” the next day (still passover) while the High Priest was performing the sacrifice of the Passover Lamb. At the same time the High Priest just completed his work and says traditionally, “It is finished, I thirst.” Jesus says these exact words as he completes his atonement.

Prophetic Appointments - "Appointed Days"

The Last Week of Jesus' life (Holy Week)

5. The Feast of "Unleavened Bread"

This 7 day feast is to represent cleansing ourselves for sin. This period begins after Passover and runs seven days. Traditionally the Jews would remove all yeast from their house and eat only "unleavened bread". Christ fulfilled this feast in his 7 day holy week by providing a way for us all to be cleansed from sin.

6. The Feast of "First-Fruits"

Jesus was resurrected on the Jewish feast day "First Fruits" which was celebrated by the head farmer coming to the High Priest and presenting the first harvest cutting of Barley, which is the first crop to be harvested every Spring. Jesus, presented himself to the Father as the "First Fruit" the first to be resurrected and Harvested.

7. The Feast of "Shavuot" or "Pentecost"

50 Days after Passover the Jewish people celebrate Shavuot. Also known as the "Pilgrim festival", all Jewish males were expected to travel to the temple in Jerusalem and commemorate the giving of the word of God or Torah. This day, the Apostles witnessed the pouring out of the Holy Spirit as promised by Jesus before his ascension.

Rev. 12:5

5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

1 Nephi 11:25

25 And it came to pass that I beheld that the rod of iron, which my father had seen, was the word of God, which led to the fountain of living waters, or to the tree of life; which waters are a representation of the love of God; and I also beheld that the tree of life was a representation of the love of God.

2 Nephi 21:4

4 But with righteousness shall he (Christ) judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth; and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

The Significance of Chanukkah

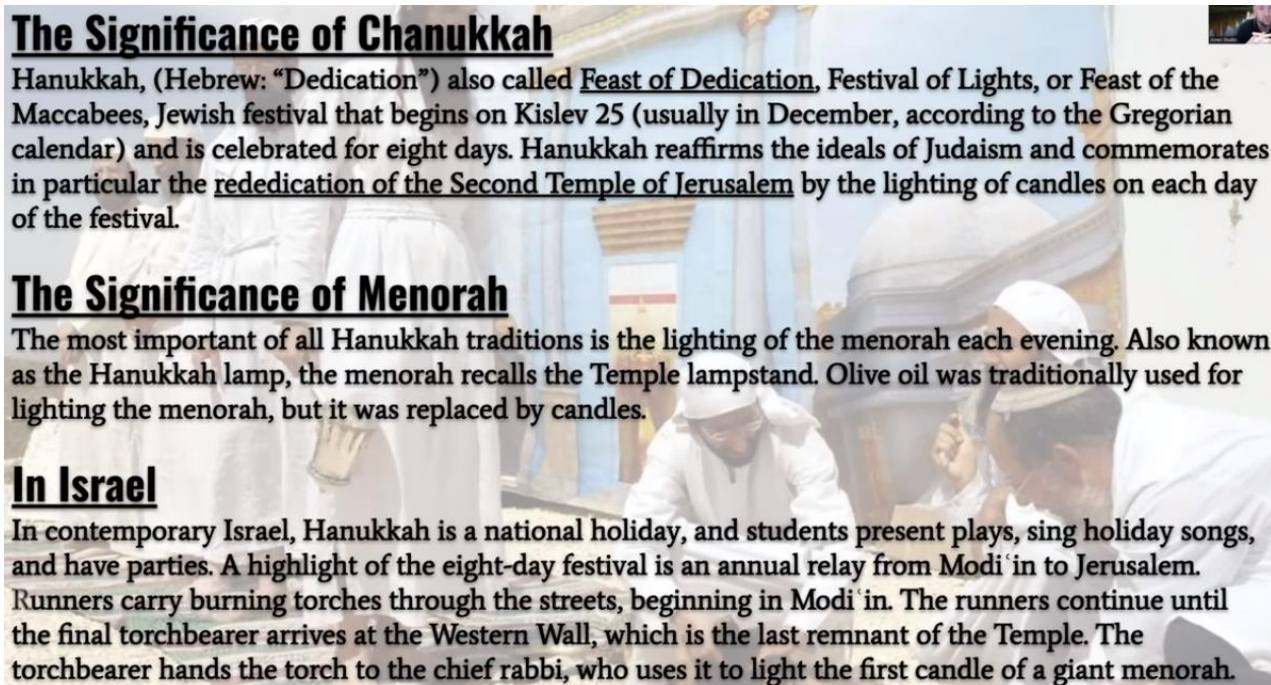

Hanukkah, (Hebrew: "Dedication") also called Feast of Dedication, Festival of Lights, or Feast of the Maccabees, Jewish festival that begins on Kislev 25 (usually in December, according to the Gregorian calendar) and is celebrated for eight days. Hanukkah reaffirms the ideals of Judaism and commemorates in particular the rededication of the Second Temple of Jerusalem by the lighting of candles on each day of the festival.

The Significance of Menorah

The most important of all Hanukkah traditions is the lighting of the menorah each evening. Also known as the Hanukkah lamp, the menorah recalls the Temple lampstand. Olive oil was traditionally used for lighting the menorah, but it was replaced by candles.

In Israel

In contemporary Israel, Hanukkah is a national holiday, and students present plays, sing holiday songs, and have parties. A highlight of the eight-day festival is an annual relay from Modi'in to Jerusalem. Runners carry burning torches through the streets, beginning in Modi'in. The runners continue until the final torchbearer arrives at the Western Wall, which is the last remnant of the Temple. The torchbearer hands the torch to the chief rabbi, who uses it to light the first candle of a giant menorah.

What does Feast of Trumpets represent?

The Trumpet or “shofar” is blown 100 times.

These trumpet blasts represent:

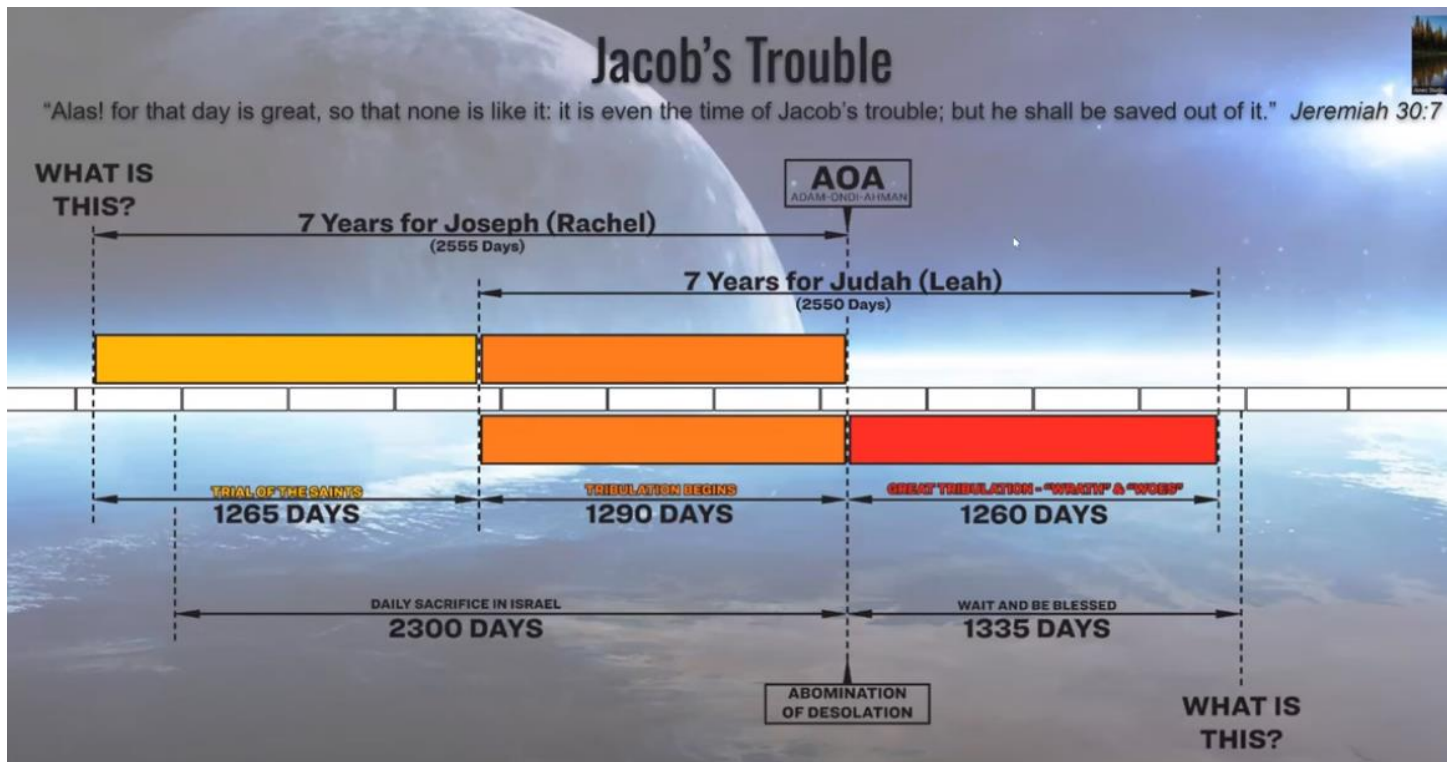

1. a cry of alarm
2. a call to repentance
3. a notice to gather
4. an announcement to prepare for the coming of the king.”

“Also known as Rosh Hashanah, meaning “Head of the Year,” the Feast of Trumpets marked a 10-day period of consecration and repentance to God. The Feast of Trumpets was one of the seven original Jewish feasts mentioned in the Torah and served as the first of three feasts to take place in the fall of the year.

The name of the Feast of Trumpets is taken from the biblical teaching to blow trumpets found in Leviticus 23:24 and Numbers 29:1-6. During this period, no work was to be performed. Only burnt offerings and sin offerings could be offered to God.”

PREPARATION

Huff: 3 Harvests

BARLEY HARVEST

- Presented the 2nd Day of Passover
- Hebrew Calendar: Nissan 15 (early spring)
- Harvests very easily
- Shake it and it falls off the cutting

"The Torah instructs that on the second day of Passover we should bring the first cutting of our barley harvest to the Holy Temple in Jerusalem as an offering to God, and not to partake of that year's barley crop until that offering is made."

"As the firstfruit crop of the Harvest, Barley speaks loudly throughout Scripture as prophetic of not only Yahushua, but of the Bride. In many of the prophetic pictures of the Bride, Barley is either present or is associated in some way. Many of the Bride examples, as well as Bride characteristics, include mention of the word Barley in some way."

WHEAT HARVEST

- "Feast of Latter Fruits"
- Presented the 1st Day of Shavuot
- Hebrew Calendar: Sivan 5 (late spring)
- Harvest is more difficult
- Required a beating of the cutting

"The second major Feast of Israel is called Shavuot, or the Feast of Latter Firstfruits. Having the Greek name Pentecost, it occurs exactly fifty days after the Feast of Early Firstfruits. This feast occurs as a memorial of the much larger wheat harvest, and includes waving of two loaves of leavened wheat bread before Yahuweh.

Indeed, Pentecost portrays the Second harvest of souls, those that were not yet ready to be harvested at the First Resurrection. Since they are Leavened, they are thus made to be baked in the 'oven' — to go through the furnace of affliction — in order to bring the crop to a state of readiness.

GRAPE HARVEST

- Harvest in 7th month (Fall)
- Hebrew Calendar: Tishri (early Fall)
- Occurs at the "Feast of Tabernacles"
- Harvests by cruching for wine

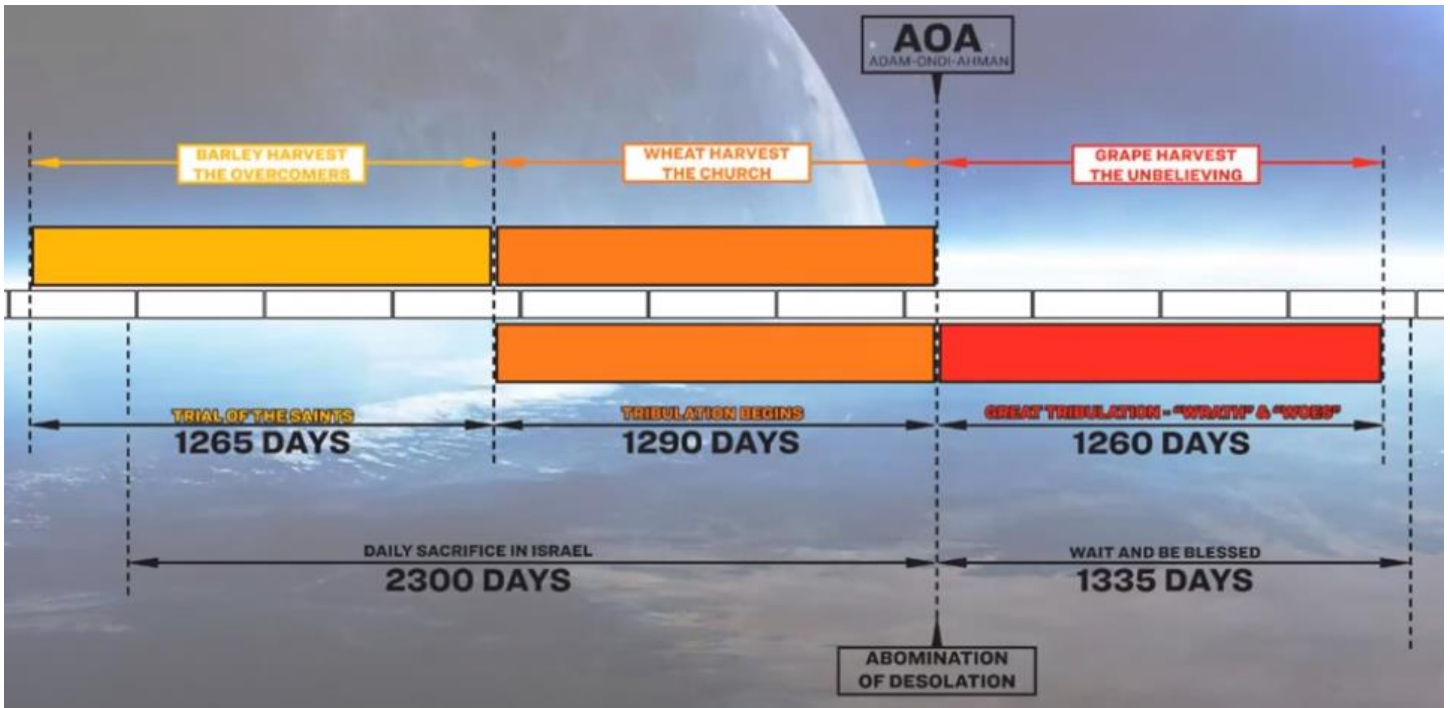

"Grape harvest season in Israel typically takes place between mid-August and mid-September. It is an exciting time for the country as the grape harvest marks the beginning of the new wine year and the end of the summer season. The grapes are handpicked from the vineyards, and depending on the region, the harvest can last anywhere from two to four weeks."

Huff: 2nd American Civil War & Gathering

American Civil War

"The time is not very far distant in the future, when the Lord will lay his hand heavily upon this nation... That same God who gave the revelation to his servant Joseph Smith in regard to these matters, will fulfill every jot and tittle that has been spoken, concerning this nation. What then will be the condition of that people, when this great and terrible war shall come? It will be very different from the war between the North and the South. Do you wish me to describe it? I will do so. It will be a war of neighborhood against neighborhood, city against city, town against town, country against country, state against state, and they will go forth destroying and being destroyed, and manufacturing will, in a great measure, cease, for a time, among the American nation. Why? Because in these terrible wars, they will not be privileged to manufacture, there will be too much bloodshed — too much mobocracy — too much going around in bands and destroying and pillaging the land to suffer people to pursue any local vocation with any degree of safety. What will become of millions of the farmers upon the land? They will leave their farms and they will remain uncultivated, and they will flee before the ravaging armies from place to place; and thus they will go forth burning and pillaging the whole country; and that great and powerful nation, now consisting of some forty millions of people, will be wasted away, unless they repent. Now these are predictions you may record. You may let them sink down into your hearts."

American Civil War

"Those who will not take up their sword to fight against their neighbor must needs flee to Zion for safety. And they will come, saying, we do not know anything of the principles of your religion, but we perceive that you are an honest community; you administer justice and righteousness, and we want to live with you and receive the protection of your laws, but as for your religion we will talk about that some other time. Will we protect such people? Yes, all honorable men. When the people shall have torn to shreds the Constitution of the United States, the Elders of Israel will be found holding it up to the nations of the earth and proclaiming liberty and equal rights to all men, and extending the hand of fellowship to the oppressed of all nations. This is part of the programme, and as long as we do what is right and fear God he will help us and stand by us under all circumstances."

(Deseret News Weekly, 28 Jan. 1880, 28:818; see also D&C 45:68–69.)

"...the next great [u.s. civil] war after the war of the rebellion [the Civil War of the 1860's between the North and the South] would commence in a little town now called Chicago but at that time it would have grown to be a very large city... the cause of the next great trouble of the United States would be the depreciation of the currency of the United States.

(Joseph Smith, LDS Church Archives, letter from Nephi Packard to A. Milton Musser, July 24, 1896.)

Lachoneus gathers the righteous in for safety.

3 Nephi 3:13-15, 21-22 & 3 Nephi 4:4

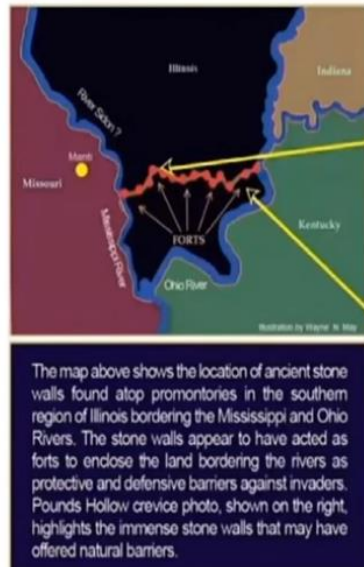

13 Yea, he sent a proclamation among all the people, that they should gather together their women, and their children, their flocks and their herds, and all their substance, save it were their land, unto one place.

14 And he caused that fortifications should be built round about them, and the strength thereof should be exceedingly great. And he caused that armies, both of the Nephites and of the Lamanites, or of all them who were numbered among the Nephites, should be placed as guards round about to watch them, and to guard them from the robbers day and night.

4 ...and the Nephites being in one body, and having so great a number, and having reserved for themselves provisions, and horses and cattle, and flocks of every kind, that they might subsist for the space of seven years...

25 And they did fortify themselves against their enemies; and they did dwell in one land, and in one body, and they did fear the words which had been spoken by Lachoneus, insomuch that they did repent of all their sins; and they did put up their prayers unto the Lord their God,

Although there has been no revelation on a geographic location for the land of Jershon, the map below shows a possible area that seems to match the region described in the text. The land area was located along the River Sidon (possibly the Mississippi River) and included the Ohio River. The land of Jershon may have occupied the area with stone wall forts shown below that enclosed the natural defenses along both photograph of the stone wall is from Giant City State Park in southern Illinois. The pin in the map is placed where the city of Manti was as revealed to Joseph Smith and recorded by his contemporaries in their journals (see p. 329 and Appendix, p. 524).

Below: Pounds Hollow Recreational Area, Shawnee National Forest, Harrisburg, Illinois

The map above shows the location of ancient stone walls found along promontories in the southern region of Illinois bordering the Mississippi and Ohio Rivers. The stone walls appear to have acted as forts to enclose the land bordering the rivers as protective and defensive barriers against invaders. Pounds Hollow crevice photo, shown on the right, highlights the immense stone walls that may have offered natural barriers.

The Daily Sacrifice in the Temple in Jerusalem

“Daily sacrifices in the Temple of God are the core of the Jewish faith. The Temple of God is the only place where the Jewish people are allowed to offer animal sacrifices to God. Every part of their lives revolves around the Temple. God commands that burnt offerings (animal sacrifices) must be a permanent statute for the Jewish people to perform in order to receive forgiveness of sins (iniquity). These sacrifices are required twice daily and a special sacrifice, called Yom Kippur is required once every year.”

“For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul.” Leviticus 17:11

“For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you. Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry. And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission...For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands...but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us: Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others...So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.”
Hebrews 9:19-28

Is the Temple Institute building the Holy Temple offsite?

No, the Temple Institute is not building the Temple offsite. We are building a stone altar offsite so that when the opportunity arrives we can move it to its proper location on the Mount. The Divine service, including the offerings can begin before the building of the Temple itself, once the altar is built and standing in its proper place.

The Temple Institute will wait for as long as it takes. The time for the building of the Temple certainly isn't up to us. As for the ashes of the red heifer, while these are essential, the possibility to temporarily proceed with the Divine service at the Holy Temple, when the majority of the nation of Israel is ritually impure, as is the case today, exists according to Torah. This is in order to assist the nation to begin, or continue, the service, even during extreme situations.

In short, it is not "technical" issues that are holding up the rebuilding of the Holy Temple, as these can be worked out. What is need is the will of the people of Israel, and the nations, to do what is necessary and build the house of G-d.

Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith

“... it is generally supposed that sacrifice was entirely done away when the Great Sacrifice [i.e.,] the sacrifice of the Lord Jesus was offered up, and that there will be no necessity for the ordinance of sacrifice in future; but those who assert this are certainly not acquainted with the duties, privileges and authority of the Priesthood, or with the Prophets.”

The offering of sacrifice has ever been connected and forms a part of the duties of the Priesthood. It began with the Priesthood, and will be continued until after the coming of Christ...These sacrifices, as well as every ordinance belonging to the Priesthood, will, when the Temple of the Lord shall be built, and the sons of Levi be purified, be fully restored and attended to in all their powers, ramifications, and blessings. This ever did and ever will exist when the powers of the Melchizedek Priesthood are sufficiently manifest; else how can the restitution of all things spoken of by the Holy Prophets be brought to pass. It is not to be understood that the law of Moses will be established again with all its rites and variety of ceremonies; this has never been spoken of by the prophets; but those things which existed prior to Moses' day, namely, sacrifice, will be continued.

D&C 13:1

“...I confer the Priesthood of Aaron, which holds the keys of the ministering of angels, and of the gospel of repentance, and of baptism by immersion for the remission of sins; and this shall never be taken again from the earth, until the sons of Levi do offer again an offering unto the Lord in righteousness.”

Why is this an ordinance?

The Red Heifers

Temple Institute

“The event of burning a new heifer for its ashes, which does not occur too frequently, was an occasion of tremendous significance for the entire nation. Because of this ordinance's unique status, special precautions were taken and some unusual procedures were employed, during the process of the heifer's preparation. Especially stringent measures were taken to ensure that the priest who would be burning the heifer would not become impure.”

Numbers 19:1-5

“This is the ordinance of the law which the Lord hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, and upon which never came yoke...the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle of her blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times:”

Urim

The transliteration of the above Hebrew would be ha-Urim voha-Tummim. "HA" means "the" and "VE" means "and". Thus the above is literally "the URIM and the THUMMIM"

URIM means "light" and THUMMIM means "perfection". These words are plurals (remember when you add "IM" to a Hebrew noun it become plural), so it should be possibly be best rendered as "Lights and Perfections". Light and perfection are the two most recognizable qualities of the Lord.

The Apocrypha

Bible Dictionary

"Secret or hidden. By this word [apocrypha] is generally meant those sacred books of the Jewish people that were not included in the Hebrew Bible (see Canon). They are valuable as forming a link connecting the Old and New Testaments and are regarded in the Church as useful reading, although not all the books are of equal value. They are the subject of a revelation recorded in D&C 91, in which it is stated that the contents are mostly correct but with many interpolations by man. Among these books the following are of special value: The Second Book of Esdras. Contains seven visions or revelations made to Ezra."

Doctrine and Covenants 91

"Verily, thus saith the Lord unto you concerning the Apocrypha—There are many things contained therein that are true, and it is mostly translated correctly;...Therefore, whoso readeth it, let him understand, for the Spirit manifesteth truth; And whoso is enlightened by the Spirit shall obtain benefit therefrom; And whoso receiveth not by the Spirit, cannot be benefited. Therefore it is not needful that it should be translated. Amen."

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

(The Stout Horn, The anti-christ, The Assyrian)

21 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

(Trail of the Saints)

22 Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings. (Three Headed Eagle) Daniel 7:20-24
