Introduction to Music Playlists

These playlists are designed to bring wholesome recreation and healing by virtuous music. Each song has been carefully screened. Genres and artists known for their corruption in content or style have been excluded. May this music enrich your life and the lives of those with whom you can share.

Some have said that music is the embodiment emotion in all of its dimensions. God is an emotional person who cries when you cry, and rejoices when you rejoice. He loves music when it is used in a good uplifting way and is kept within the bounds He has set.

We are all in different places in life and there can be different songs that can speak to us to help us in our time of need. Of course there are limits to what is appropriate, but there is also a bit of flexibility. We should all strive toward truly Christlike music, and strive to minister to one another's needs.

We speak to each in their language. With exception of those which are corrupt, I've attempted to communicate these therapeutic messages in more "languages" (genres/styles) than one. We can easily reject artists whose messages and demeanors are obviously teaching illicit sex, rebellion, and other atrocities. Mozart and other great musicians have had struggles in life. This however does not mean that we excuse artists whose material REPRESENTS a repeated dismissal of conscience. The D&C says the Lord will reach us a pure language in the millennium. I feel part of that teaching will be holy forms of music. We should follow the conscience to try to align ourselves with that holy language today. Remember the theme of the millennium: HOLINESS TO THE LORD. Contention rudeness slothfulness and forgetfulness are what Elder Bednar identified as what make the Liahona (compass from the Lord) stop working. If a song communicates those themes, dismiss it.

An important note on connecting with others via music: At the April 2020 General Conference a speaker pointed out how when Lehi remained at the tree while he attempted to get others to come to the tree. This means we cannot compromise our standards in our efforts to connect with and guide others. We cannot use bad music which might have a good part to it. That is not the tree we are trying to get them to. There is some flexibility on style, but there is NO flexibility when it comes to moral correctness of media. Jesus ate with sinners, but he did not sin with them.

I do not endorse all artists on these lists, some merely have a few good songs fitting for the topic at hand. Screen all of your music before casual listening to make sure your playlist or library is pure and holy. For radio I stick to classical as the other genres often throw in questionable songs.

When a song is questionable, throw it out. Remember what Jesus Christ said, “And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.” (Matt. 5:29). There is enough good, we do not need the bad.

Be willing to give up the bad when we have found the good. Jesus Christ said, “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls: Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.” (Matt. 13:45-50).

I hope you find as I have, happiness instruction and healing from these songs. Feel free to reach out to me if you find some error in them which I may not have been aware of, or if you have other meaningful suggestions to add.

Sort in after sifting, Hebrew songs from Rebekah

Some of my favorite Israeli artists are:

—Idan Amedi (Probably my personal favorite. He sings pop music. Quite a few of his songs are influenced by his time in the military and the aftermath of his experiences there. He is an advocate for peace.)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=x7wrPEatuk4>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=c5cyR2uvLBw>

—Avishai Cohen. He has a jazz background, and this figures into a lot of his music. He also takes some of the traditional/religious Jewish songs and makes covers of them. I like a lot of his stuff.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=c5rCo3CD_k4

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Z-FEkyRILE>

—Ofra Haza gave this incredible rendition of Jerusalem of Gold (Yerushalayim shel zahav). It's a classic.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=72QC8EGnxTw>

—Naomi Shemer was a really famous Israeli singer in the 60s and 70s. One of her most well-known pieces is the Eucalyptus Grove (Chorshat ha-eukaliptus).

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IDNtdPiL584>

Other songs:

Shalom Aleichem. This song is the song traditionally sung to welcome the Sabbath. There are multiple common tunes that the words are set to. This is my favorite.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=913jZFL1bdE>

The Road to Qesarya (Halachah le'Qesarya)

The lyrics to this song are by Hannah Senesh. This song has come to have huge significance for Israelis.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8KMvYjGnUA>

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QgEHWyQsi_k

Holiday Songs:

B'Rosh HaShanah (at new year's)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=G8C0Mb9U00Q>

BaShana HaBa'a (This coming year)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MqMIpuTVhY4>

There are also various groups who get together and make fun songs for holidays:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qSjCSR4MuhU>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CYRM7KYJY4>

Eric Whitacre has written a song cycle of Five Hebrew Love Songs, which are really beautiful.
