Introductory Thoughts on Wearing the Cross & Other Symbols of Belief

For the Latter-day Saints, wearing the cross is not popular. It is certainly not forbidden however. President Hinckley explained that the main way saints share their faith is by the way they live. This is a terrific message and very true. We all know people who wear crosses or have tattooed crosses whose lives have very little to do with the Christian lifestyle. To each their own, but remember that the choices you make speak much louder than the messages you promote.

That said, we can also promote messages with symbols and short messages, and much good can come of such. We are aware that a loud minority can shape a culture. It has been said that when we do and say nothing in the face of evil, we are letting evil prevail. For every gay pride flag, there are 100 quiet Christians who oppose such things, yet say nothing. Let them fly a flag of their own!

Though not required, what a powerful tool these little messages can be! Let it be known that in your house, and your town, we serve the Lord!

Fly Flags

Flags:

I've seen some version of these flags for sale, and recommend flying them from your home or even vehicle, etc. I've found them on Amazon, etc.

1. The ten commandments (I've seen one of these in stone tablet image form in English; I have yet to find one with Hebrew letters)
2. Israel

3. Kingdom of God (this is the flag which used to be used but The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, originally used on Ensign peak.) (I'm not sure where to find this flag, let me know if you find it.)
4. Flags of your genealogical heritage
5. Don't Tread on Me
6. Come and Take It (2nd amendment advocacy)
7. Constitution Party (haven't found one of these yet, you may have to make it on your own)
8. US Constitution Preamble
9. Dove with Olive Branch (a biblical symbol of peace)
10. Moroni's Title of Liberty ("In memory of our God, our religion, and freedom, and our peace, our wives, and our children") (this flag was used to rally the righteous in a battle of ancient America as found in The Book of Mormon)

Note: NOT the rainbow, this symbol, originally indicating God's covenant relationship with the righteous, has been usurped as a symbol of rebellion against Gods laws.

Here is the Pro Life flag along side the Captain Moroni flag:

Slogans Topic: Stick Families for your Vehicle

Stick families are a fun way to promote pro-life pro-family and other important views. They are a series of stickers (or magnets) that go on the back of a car, one for each family member, typically larger for adults, and some differentiator for males and females. Sometimes pets are included. Really anything you chose to do is good as it testifies of the importance of family. Some chose to do this in a more playful way, others in more formal ways.

Here are some ideas:

Normal stick figures

Crosses

Angel Moroni's
People in formal dress
Ballet dancers
Jesus Fish (these were used anciently by undercover heavily persecuted Christians; a believer would trace out half the fish, if another person was also a believer he would complete the fish tracing, this was the sign)

– The prototype is Christ. He is the standard of salvation. He is a saved being. He is saved because he is a just and holy being, and if he were anything other than what he is he would not be saved. If it were possible for him to change from what he is it would not be possible for him to be saved. To be unlike Christ is to be destroyed. Herein hinges the door of salvation. Christ carried his cross and died, and if called upon, we must do so as well. -Bruce R. McConkie, referencing Joseph Smith, Lectures on Faith

Mezuzah on Your Door

The Mezuzah is a small scroll or inscription with Deuteronomy 6:4-9, which Jews put on door frames. Each person who goes in or out of the house is to kiss their hand and touch it on their way. You might put a higher one for adults and a lower one for children. Some put them on each doorway of the house, but at least the front door. The children were drilled this scripture to memorize it from a very early age. It's theme is that we are a religious people. Here is the scripture:

"4 Hear, O Israel: the LORD our God, the LORD is one.

5 And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

6 And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be upon thy heart;

7 and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thy house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

8 And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thy hand, and they shall be for frontlets between thine eyes.

9 And thou shalt write them upon the door-posts of thy house, and upon thy gates."
